Everything has its beauty.

EACH YEAR IS SPECIAL IN ITS OWN WAY

New Keyettes carry on old projects.

Well it's not a camel caravan, but . . .

Is this anyplace to spend an afternoon?

Novelties. New, untried, uncommon. With the advent of an energy crisis the school day was ushered in by pitch black darkness. Classes were lengthened and getting out early was a thing of the past.

A change in the weather brought unexpected pleasantness to the campus and brightened the days.

The library's new and diverse equipment lent itself to an afternoon's enjoyment and provided unique ways to learn.

The projects of service clubs are not new but their willingness to work is a thing uncommon.

TIMES CHANGE AND NOVEL THINGS OCCUR

"Young people, let me say this . . ."

Novelties. A new way of saying an old thing can be very novel.

Our holiday decorations carry an age old message. The ways, though, are as unique as they are various.

Mr. Lovett is not a neoterist. Why? A neoterist is a maker of new words and expressions. But the way Mr. Lovett says things is very out of the ordinary.

Everyone has the spirit.

Summertime weather in the dead of winter is a most unusual thing. November temperatures hit record high. As there is no time like the present, the summertime was taken advantage of. Lunch out of doors became a frequent and pleasant occurrence. The sunny days even made studying a little more pleasurable.

Now I know that if I sit here long enough it will come to me.

Lunch out of doors on the new picnic tables is always delicious.

THE NOVEL REMAINS WHEN THE NEW PASSES

This is a beautiful day to just talk.

The much appreciated change in the weather persuaded many students to cycle to school. Other students seemed to just enjoy frolicing in the warm sunshine. There were some though that sought the true winter slime. A ski club was organized at Hampton High School. In the latter part of February, Hampton students sponsored an excursion to the Massanutten Ski resort.

There is nothing like friends and a good time.

Silhouette against the sky.

Is this one mine?

Does it really work?!

"Well, hello there."

HAMPTON IS RE-EVALUATED

Novelties. A thing that touches us and we are not use to it is novel.

Hampton had its ten-year evaluation this year. The activities stirred by the evaluation were varied. Some things were expected and some were not.

Metric thinkers are coming out of the science classes and it's a good thing. We may all "think metric" soon.

The Xerox copier in the library certainly is novel. Know why?

"Metric Week? What's metric?"

A pleasant end to a “pleasant day?”

The “new” English unites the old and the new.

AND PASSES WITH FLYING COLORS

Larry doesn't want to wait 'til June.

, Novelties. The new and unusual sooner or later becomes common place.

Remember when the soda machines were “novelties?”

What does it feel like to be a senior? “Until June, it doesn't feel.”

The “new” English system is old hat now; except of course for the teacher's headaches.

SOME TRADITIONS

You wouldn't believe this is the breezeway.

This cannot be the "Lone Ranger!"

Novelties. Tradition. The two often go hand in hand; sometimes they do not.

The traditional Cowboy Day remained one more year, but then apathy was there, too.

A novel approach to pep rallies saw the girls basketball team honor their coach for winning and losing with them.

The spirit of newness brought a change to the breezeway.

This time the coach gets the prize.

ARE BROKEN AND NEW ONES ARE MADE

Santa cares.

She's the apple of their eye.

Novelties. A novel thing is a wonderful thing.

Christmas shows are always nice because hoiday time is a happy time.

Favorite teachers are fun to have; mostly because they are fun to know.

special events

The Special Events
highlight the school year. They break the monotony of school life and provide milestones

our high school careers.

SPIRIT IS HIGH ON COWBOY DAY

Cowboy Day was highlighted by a Cowboy-Indian skit in which the mighty Crabbers shot down a Kecoughtan Warrior. The excited crowd responded by yelling, "Ra, ra, ra, ra, I'd rather be a Crabber than a squaw, squaw." This display of spirit spirred the Crabbers on to a victory.

1. The crowd — "getting it on." 2. Gary Bodie readies his bow and arrow. 3. Pep rallies inspire everyone, not just the cheerleaders. 4. Lance Enderson fires at the Kecoughtan Warrior.

BANDS AND RECORDS SPARK DANCES

Several SCA dances were held this year. The dances proved so successful that other clubs took advantage of this means of money making and enjoyment. The Key Club, Sophomore Class, and the Varsity Cheerleaders were among the other groups that gave school sponsored dances.

1. The First Degree supplied the soul music. 2. Calvin Shakespeare announces the songs. 3. Carl Aaron does the bump. 4. Everyone gets it on at the May Day sock hop.

POLITICAL EFFICACY IN ACTION

1. Students pile into the auditorium for the mock election rally. 2. Billy Van Buren introduces his candidate. 3. Students actively give support. 4. The four House of Delegates candidates await their turns to speak. 5. Mr. Bagley cracks a joke.

Election time 1973 brought a disease called political behavior to the hallowed halls of Hempton High, and Doc Livingston claimed the only antidote was a good old-fashioned mock election. Organized by Matt Horne, Lance Anderson, and Billy Van Buren, all four of Hampton's House of Delegates candidates and two speakers representing Mills Godwin and Henry Howell laid their wares before an attentive student assembly. Who won? . . . Well, from the looks of things it must have been the students!

It was that time of year again. SCA, student government, was having its annual drive for officers. Campaign issues included: open campus, pep rallies, dances, student school board, devotions, better representation. Elected for the year 1974-75 were Mike Powell, president; Gregg Garrett, vice-president; Bunny Willis, secretary; Susanna Wong, treasurer; Donna Brynat, chaplain.

1. Donna for Chaplain. 2. Vote John McFall. 3. Vice President Garrett. 4. Sunny Bunny. 5. Judy Judy.

CRABBERS GRASP THE HAND OF VICTORY

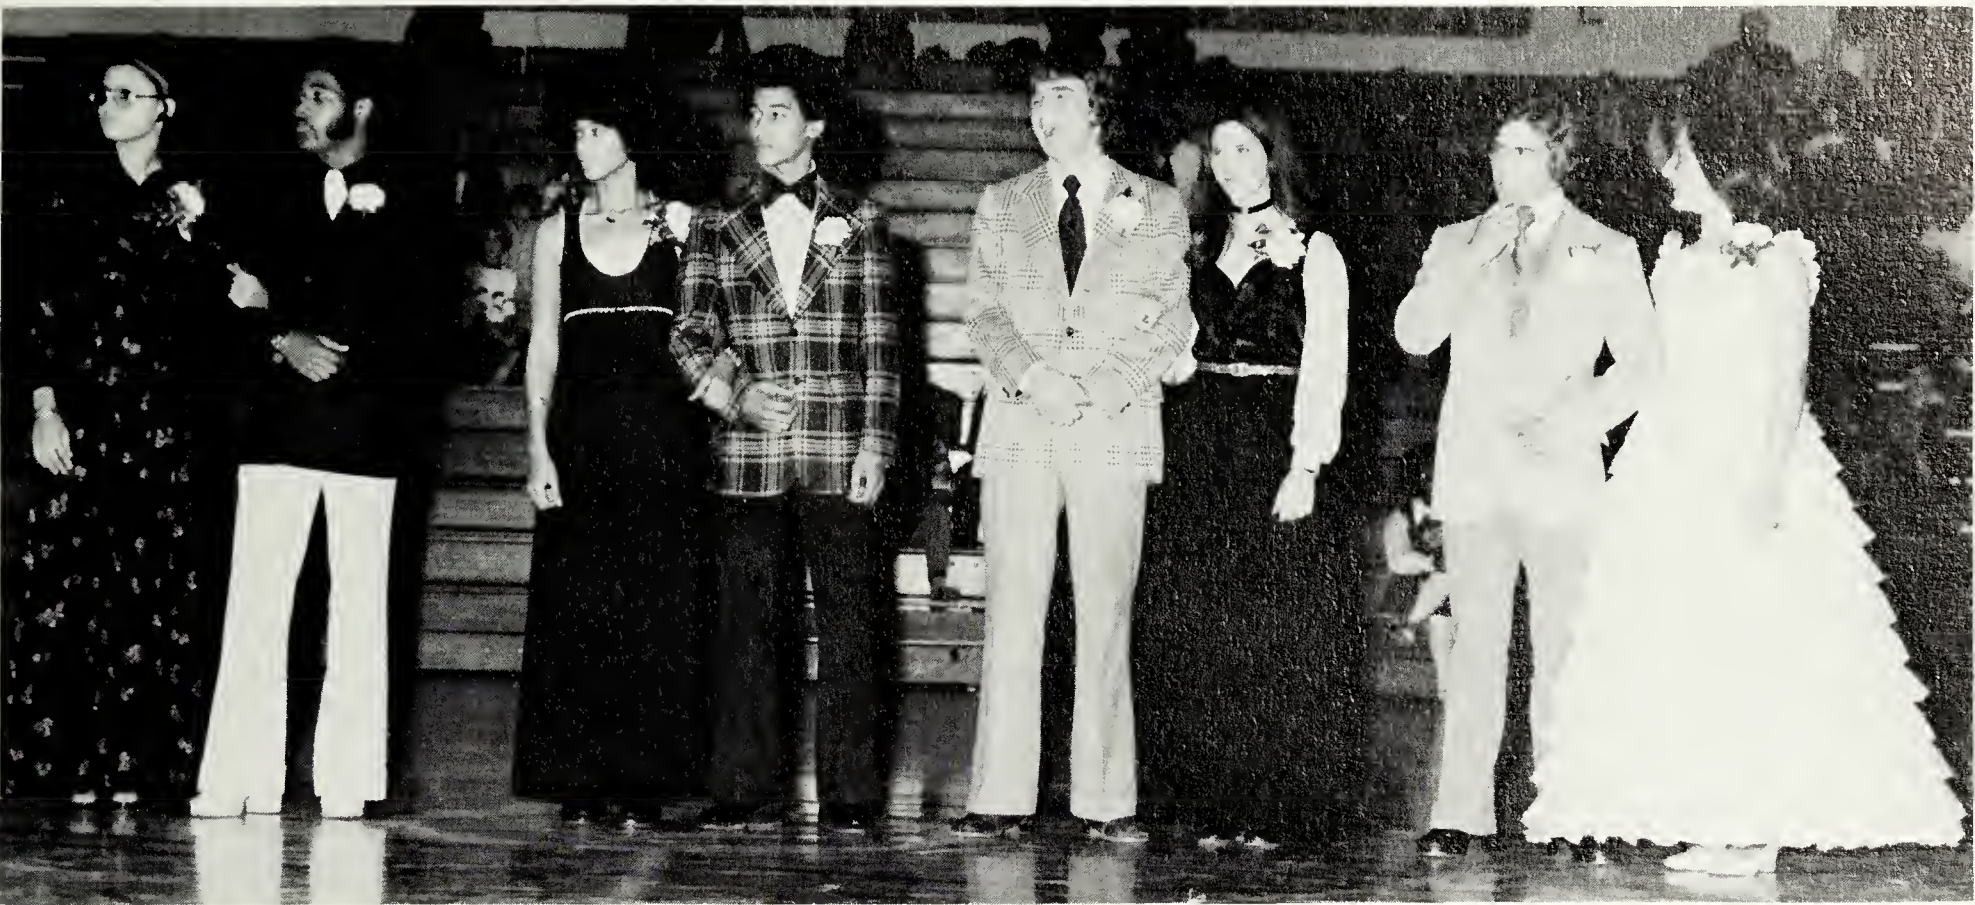

The Big Red Machine proved victorious in their Homecoming contest against the Tabb Tigers. Homecoming pageantry was provided by the Hampton Band and the ROTC Drill team. The Pleasantry of the Homecoming festivities came with the crowning of Miss Josilyn Williams as Queen of the Homecoming. The queen's attendants were seniors Connie Farris and Ruth Council, juniors, Patricia Diaz and Debbie Barrett, and sophomores, Kathy Bell and Ola Grepiotis.

1. Senior Connie Farris gazes admiringly at her escort Bruce Brooks. 2. Josilyn Williams shines radiantly on the arm of her escort Randall Johnson. 3. Ruth Council escorted by Matt Horne flashes a gracious smile to on looking Crabbers.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING COURT: Kathy Bell, Debbie Barrett, Josilyn Williams, Ruth Council, Ola Grepiotis.

VICTORY FOR QUEEN DERYL SESSOMS

Hampton's basketball team proved adept in both aspects of basketball homecoming. Not content with being victorious over opposing Tabb, the cagers proved themselves worthy as judges of beauty. Deryl Sessoms was the Crabbers choice to reign as queen of the homecoming court. Other attendents were seniors Betty Fedzuik and Vanessa Carter, juniors Susan Anthony and Cynthia Cannon, and sophomores, Carol Councill and Susan Quinn.

1. The members of the Basketball Homecoming Court line up at half-time anxiously awaiting the moment the new Queen is crowned. 2. Star Basketball player Walter Jones kisses newly crowned Homecoming Queen Deryl Sessoms and presents her with crown, trophy, and flowers.

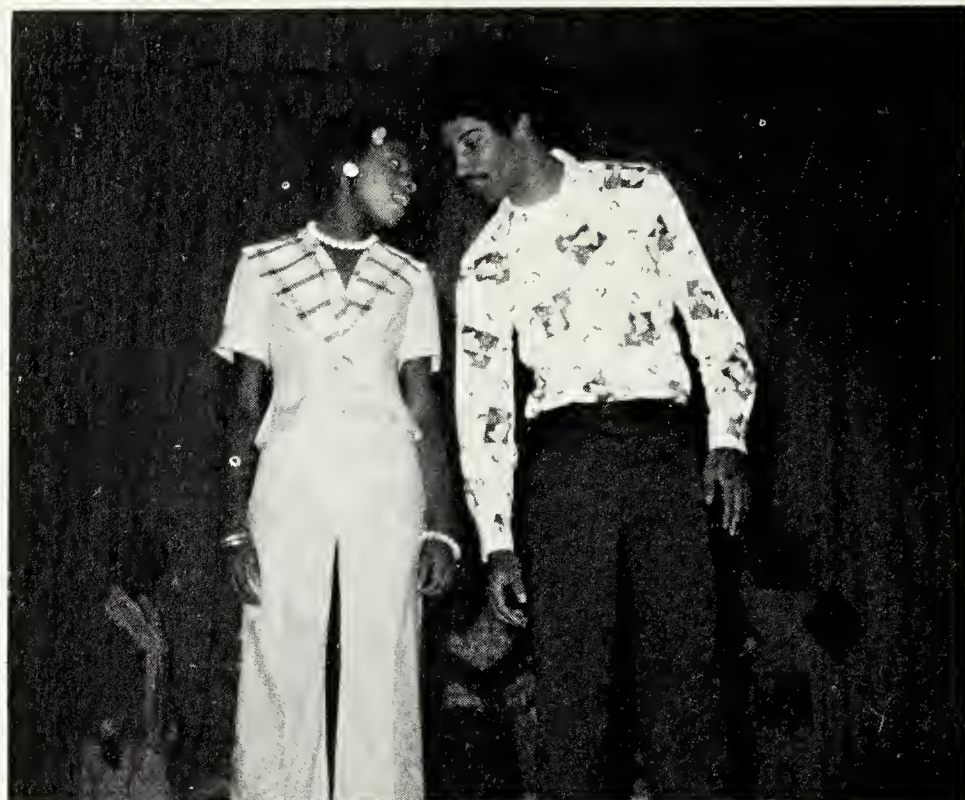

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING COURT: Susan Quinn, Betty Fedzuik, Deryl Sessoms, Vanessa Carter, Susan Anthony, and Carol Councill.

FHA SPONSORS FASHION SHOW

The Future Homemakers of America held their first fashion show, Around the World in Fashion, April 19. The latest fashions from Paris, London, Bermuda, and other sections of the world were shown. The clothes modeled were supplied by P.S. Limited, Stitches, Fines, J.C. Penny, Mitchell Tuxedo, and some students modeled their own designs.

1. Walter Jones gives Sharon Thompson a kiss before she models. 2. Mrs. Billings and Bernadette Southerland act as Mistresses of Ceremony. 3. Angela Pride, Rex Perry, and Sharon France model the latest in sportswear. 4. Andrea Barrett, Tommy Hogge, and Robin Green are ready for the prom. 5. Francine Caroline, R. Lester Outlaw, and Sandra Hicks model the latest formals.

TRADITIONAL FOOTBALL PARADE BROUGHT BACK

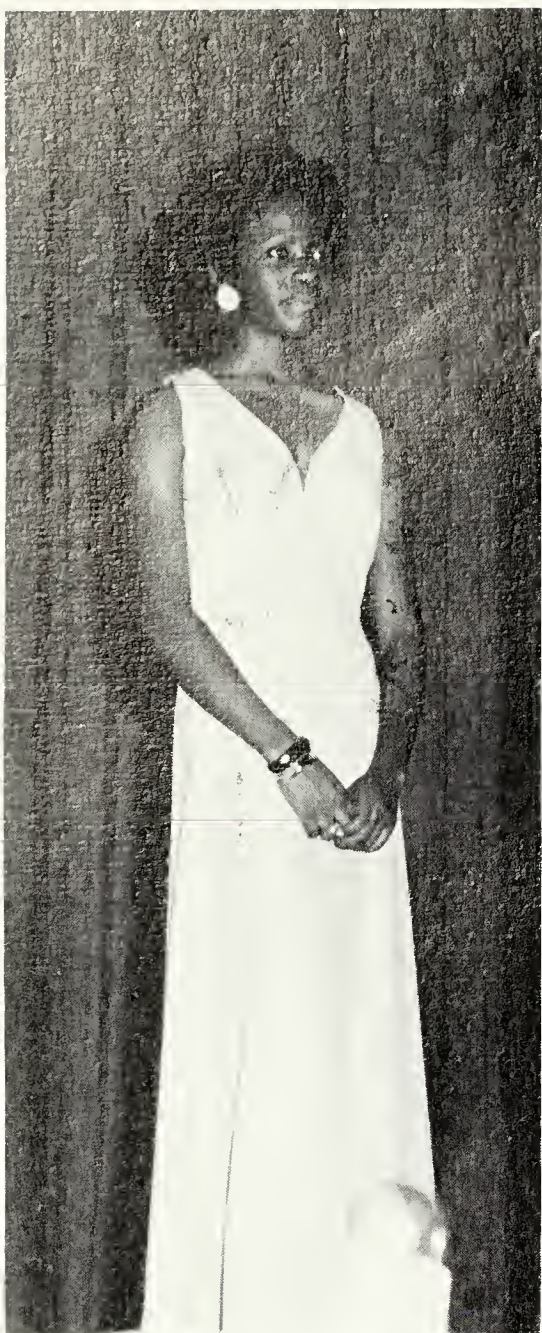

Hampton High's various clubs were busy the week before Homecoming getting ready for the first football parade since the annual Turkey Day game was ended several years ago.

The parade route extended from the corner of LaSalle down W. Queen to Hampton High. The night was topped off by the traditional bonfire.

1. Of course, such a good Annual Staff float promoted yearbook sales. 2. Even the library club had a small but effective float in the parade. 3. Distinguished judges and spectators look on from the reviewing stand. 4. Timmy Daube and Wallice Washington make final adjustments for the D.E. float. 5. The Omp Pah Band ended the parade and captured first place for best all around.

MISS HHS

The Miss HHS pageant contestants were all underclassmen. School clothes were modeled followed by the talent competition. The eleven contestants then modeled their gorgeous formals. The five semi-finalists were announced and then "the question" was asked: If you had a choice would you rather live in the past, present, or future? Four voted future and one, past. The judges made the hard decision and Rena Coxwell was crowned Miss HHS 1974-75.

1. First Runner up Sharlene Caples. 2. Second runner up Charlene Dewitt. 3. Third runner up Zelda Johnson. 4. Fourth runner up Ola Grepiotis. 5. Sharon Higgins enacts a monologue on her death. 6. Betty Mervin sings for her talent. 7. Renz Coxwell has just been crowned Miss HHS 1974-75. 8. Josilyn Williams, Miss HHS 1973-74 takes her farewell walk. 9. The contestants.

Traditional May Day was celebrated this year with more enthusiasm than ever. Clubs helped to make the day a success. Activities included a dance sponsored by the Varsity cheerleaders; a pingpong tournament by the Chem-Phy club; a Key club lemonade and watermelon sale; an arm wrestling contest by drama club; skateboard and pogo stick races by the Keyettes; old annual and picture sale by the annual staff; popsicles and soap bubbles sale by the National Honor Society; paper flower sale by Spanish club; baked goods sale by FTA; and, as always, there was the dunking booth.

1. Bob Wilson marks down another win. 2. Sandy Williams and Tommy Hogge examine their watermelon for seeds. 3. Eager hands reach for a cold glass of freshly squeezed lemonade. 4. John McFall quickly explains the rules before the struggle begins. 5. Ruth Council is content to just sit and blow bubbles. 6. Students dance to Hampton band. 7. Eleanor Patrick just leans back and lets the people browse. 8. David Belvin is astonished by all the flowers. 9. David Colonna strains to get every last drop. 10. "Won't somebody buy something?"

MAY DAY GETS BIGGER AND BETTER EVERY YEAR

The Hampton Room of the Sheraton Inn was transformed into a world of color. The use of flourescent paints, colored and black lights were used to the maximum to give a dynamic effect.

Music was furnished by the Positive Sound band.

The coffee-area was used as the lounge; the swimming pool was the background.

1. The Prom Court: Princess — Ruth Council. King — Lance Enderson, Queen — Deryl Sessions, Prince — Fred Boykins. 2. The Positive Sound gettin' down to the music. 3. Sandra Murray dancing to the music.

MY WORLD

1. H.H.S. gettin' off! 2. Taking things slow. 3. Glendell Wilson takes things easy.

PROM AT SHERATON PROVES A SUCCESS

1. Mr. Mann shows how the bump is really done. 2. The Prom cake attracted many. 3. Taking a break from dancing to enjoy the refreshments.

1. A Glimpse of the many faces at the Prom.

The theatrical department's first production was Outward Bound, a fantasy drama by Sutton Vane. A surrealistic setting provided the background for this abstract play.

In keeping with the joy of Christmas time, the drama department presented A Christmas Gift to local elementary school children. A visit by the jolly old elf himself preceded the one-act play.

The Rustic Scenes from a Midsummer Nights Dream and Chamber Music were presented for the third production of the season. The first play had an all male cast, while Chamber Music dealt with one room of a women's insane asylum.

Thespian Troupe 300 closed the 73-74 season with Neil Simon's comedy hit Barefoot in the Park. Simon, famous for his "one-liners," outdid himself with this situation comedy. The play was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

The Drama Department put out much hard work and effort to produce these fine plays, yet the total attendance on any one night never totalled more than fifty — A sad fact in the eyes of any theatergoer, and even sadder in the eyes of the Drama Department.

1. Patty Woodland and friend relax before the presentation of "Chamber Music". 2. Gary Bodie beats the drum at the Christmas play. 3. Danny Bunn prepares his make-up for his part in The Rustic Scenes from Mid-summer's Nights Dream. 4. John McFall rolls his eyes, while Danny Bunn laughs at Mr. Heatwole. 5. Robin Gresham and Sabrina Walton prepare for Chamber Music. 6. Jon Wetmore and Robin Gresham entice the audience to attend the performance.

class SOS

With the halls of Hampton more crowded than usual, half of student body was composed of sophomores. However with the summer graduation program many students were unsure of their class altogether.

Boy's State: Bob Wilson, Thad Konopnicki, Lance Enderson, Billy VanBuren, Stephen DeBrew, Larry Newby, Brian Witherspoon, Matt Horne.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS RECOGNIZED

National Achievement Winners: Larry Newby, Stephen Debrew, Karen Ali, Brian Witherspoon.

Girl's State and Boy's State proved to be a unique experience to the delegates who attended. Girl's State was held at Radford College and Boy's State was held at Lynchburg College. The purpose of the "States" was to educate the student delegates to the "workings" of representative government.

Girl's State: (front) Laura Stein, Karen Ali, Betty Fedziuk; (middle) Denise Chandler, Josilyn Williams; (back) Ginny Dutrow.

Senior Board of Governors: (kneeling) Brian Witherspoon; (front) Patty Murray, Ruth Councill, Paige Speight, Stephen DeBrew, Karen Ali; (back) Maurice Byrd, Arthur Thatcher, Billy VanBuren, Joel Jessee, Larry Newby, Amy Kaiser.

Senior Class Officers: Vice President, Joel Jessee; Secretary, Connie Farris; Treasurer, Ruth Councill; President, Brian Witherspoon.

Ruth Councill received the Daughters of the American Revolution good citizenship award and Brian Witherspoon received the American Legion citizenship award.

Billy Guy and Gary Bodie were National Merit-semi finalist.

No matter how banal or how spectacular the senior class is, Class Night and Commencement seem to be the most memorable experiences. The things that come before them are memorable too. The seniors won the spirit stick in most every pep rally this year and their spirit made itself known at the games also. The seniors made a "Class of '74" sign and posted it on the school as a reminder of their presence.

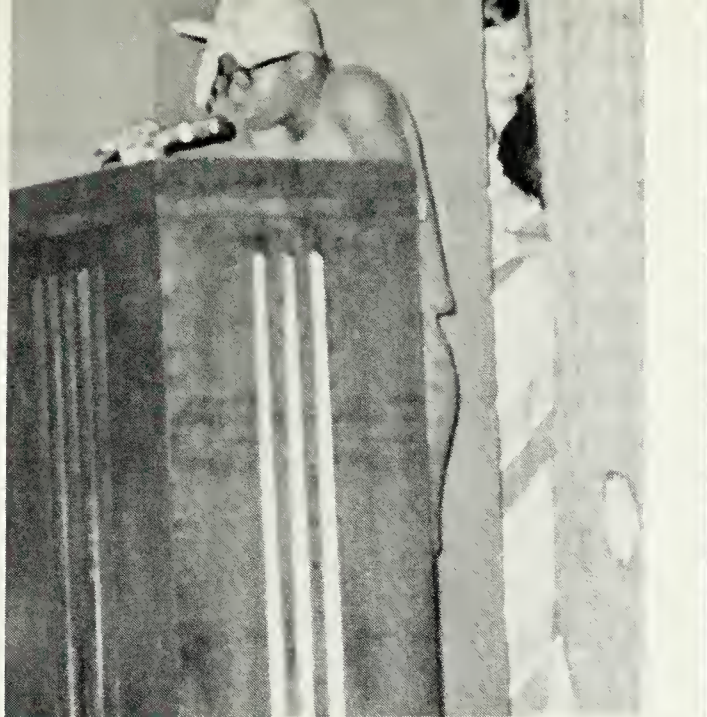

There were other things but the experience of being a senior is the best of all because it takes in all of these.

CLASS NIGHT '74

1. Seniors enjoy the antics of class night. 2. Ken Campbell, Jon Wetmore, and Joel Jessee entertain. 3. Gary Bodie waits for curtain to open. 4. Tyrone Manley recites his poem. 5. Laurie Pietrowski and Betsy Burford provide comic relief. 6. An evaluator scene. 7. Mrs. Livingstone, student teacher and class.

After finally picking a date for Class Night and getting practices going, a fine production was given. Eighty people signed to participate in the Class of '74's night to remember. Gary Bodie acted as the M.C. sweeping up the memories of the past three years. Matt Horne was the Class Historian; Tyrone Manley, Poet; Joel Jessee, Prophet; Kay Wiatt, Last Will and Testament; Sharon Jenkins, Giftorian.

Highlights of the class's high school career included: streaking, the evaluators, Mrs. Livingston, the New York trip, and many other experiences.

THE END IS JUST

1. Mr. D. Mefford lead the guys in the coliseum for graduation exercises. 2. The honored guests viewed the procession. 3. Laura Stein spoke about habits and traditions to her fellow students. 4. Senior Class President Brian Witherspoon gave his closing marks to the Class of '74. 5. A senior walked quickly off stage after receiving her diploma. 6. Everyone admired his diploma.

THE BEGINNING

A quick, simple and dignified ceremony characterized the graduation. The traditional gowns of red and white were worn, however, Pomp and Circumstance was not played. After extensive practice the actual ceremony was carried off without a hitch. Nobody tripped up the stairs, which chalked up another first for the Class of '74.

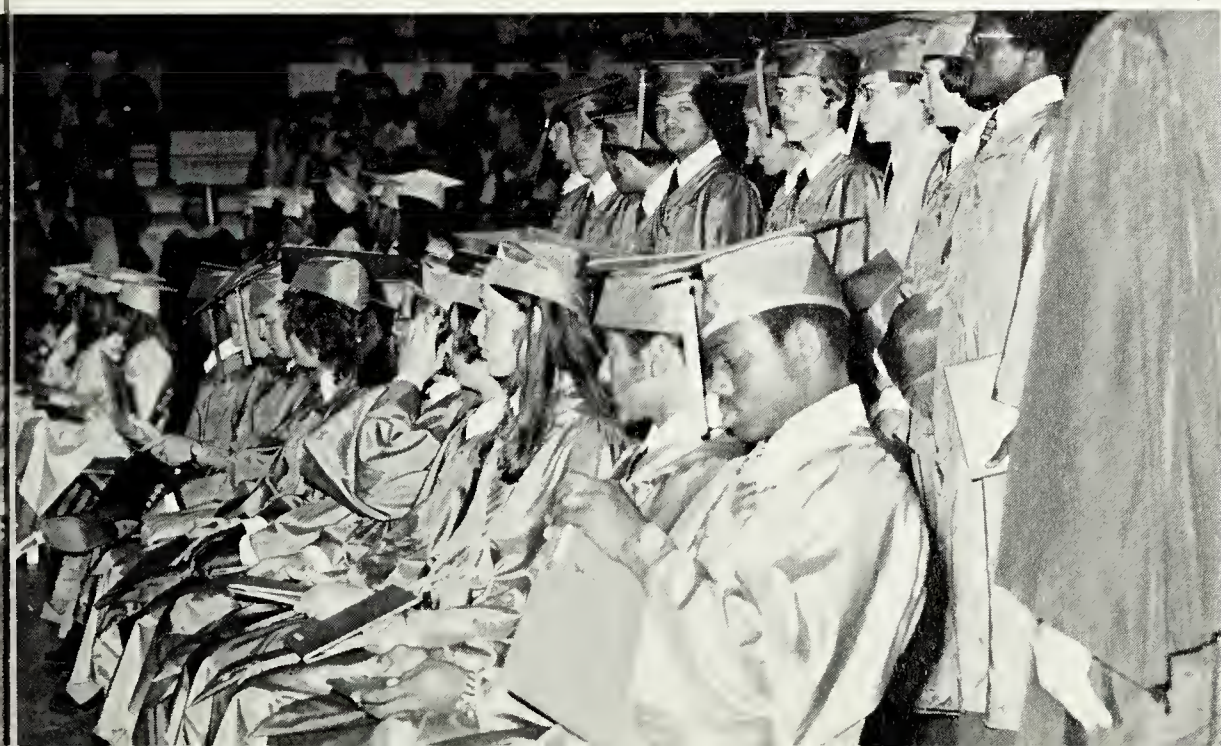

Speakers were Brian Witherspoon, Laura Stein, and Gary Bodie. Brian, the class president, spoke on friends, Laura spoke on habits and traditions, and Gary spoke on success and materialism. The top 5%, 20 students picked the two speakers.

Mr. Johns and Mr. Price managed to bungle names, but the graduates did not mind because of their nervousness. All went well with the graduates rejoicing and crying after it was all over.

Seniors mingle with underclassmen.

Indifference, Aloofness. In Hampton High School it's called 'Senior Slump.' It's an affliction that, for unknown reasons, becomes prevalent during the last semester of the senior year.

The affliction has noknown cure, but usually vanishes after the first week in June.

NOVELTY: PROM HELD AT THE SHERATON

They waited impatiently for their rings, which came in a wider selection than in precious years.

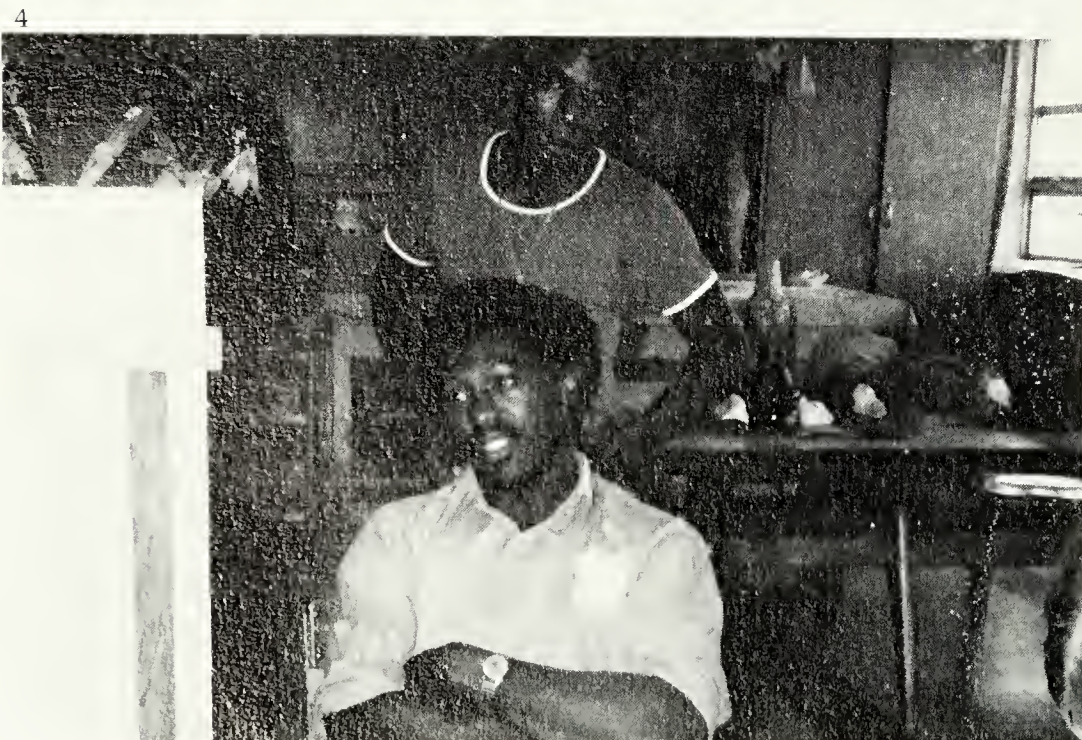

The Miss H.H.S. Pageant had a novelty all its own. Entertainment was furnished by the First Degree band, and a dance was performed by the Narambas, a dance group consisting of Juniors. A dance was also performed entitled "dances 50's — 70's".

Miss Rena Coxwell, a Junior, was crowned Miss H.H.S.

All of the preparation was reaching the climax of the prom. Dues were collected and recollected. Decorations were made. Breaking traditions the prom was held at the Sheraton Inn. "Color My World" was chosen as the theme.

Jr. Class Officers: (front) Mark Enderson, Lisa Abramson, Regina Mitchell, John Stone (back) Evangeline Williams, Susan Anthony, Bunny Willis, Debbie Barrett, Cathy Lee, Angela Pride.

Officers: Susan Anthony Secretary, Mark Enderson, President, Vann Williams, V.-President, Debbie Barrett, Treasurer. 3. Lisa Abramson and Edwin Jones, Mistress and Master of Ceremony, of the Miss H.H.S. Pageant. 4. Jr. Class sponsor, and Art teacher, Mr. Mann gazes at art work.

New English classes provide projects for student creations of the past.

The Class of '75, under the leadership of Mark Enderson, conducted a vigorous campaign to change the location of the traditional prom. Working diligently to obtain dues, the Junior Executive Board sparked this year's campaign, which was highlighted by novel posters, emphasizing the goal to have the prom at the Sheraton Inn.

Cindy Lester pays her junior dues.

TWO HEADS ARE BETTER THAN ONE

Sophomore Executive Board: (back) Zachary Taylor, Mike Hanson, Suzanne Williams, Tommy Wornom, Donald Cosby, Robert Pollard, Greg Garrett, (middle) Craig Via, Carol

Councill, Susan Quinn, Sandy Williams, Morgan Morris, (front) David Riggins, Janet Riddick, Vanessa Herbin, Paula Stewart, Dennis Kiser.

Sophomore Class Officers: Dennis Kiser, Susan Quinn, Paula Stewart, Greg Garrett, Woodrow Wilson.

1. Greg Garrett, president of sophomore Class.
2. Sophomore Bobby Otte participates in a drama production.
3. Its been a bad day!
4. David Rathbone sucks his thumb!

The sophomore class was headed by co-presidents, Paula Stewart and Greg Garrett, through an active calendar. The sophomore class participated in the football parade, with the biggest float entered. They sponsored a very successful dance and a trash clean up for the school. Members of the executive board feel that their biggest contribution to the school was the schedule sign assembled on the front lawn off of Queen Street.

Hampton basketball games provide much excitement for sophomore spectators.

Building a sophomore class float for the parade, sponsoring a Christmas Dance, and holding a holiday queen contest were some of the many activities undertaken by the sophomore class. Hard work and determination were revealed in all their endeavors.

The sophomore float may not have been the best, but it was certainly the biggest!

Bus troubles characterize Quebec trip.

Overcrowding of Hampton's city high schools brought several from Lindsay, Thorpe, Eaton, Syms, Spratley, Davis, and Buckroe junior high schools together at Hampton High. Strangely enough this variety of students produced a spirited class of '76.

The sophomore class sprang to life in the '73-'74 school year. Following the election of class officers in mid fall, no time was wasted before a dues campaign was initiated.

The sophomores surprised everyone but themselves by organizing a successful "Holiday Jam." The enterprising sophomores made a profit of approximately $500 and crowned a very fitting queen, Diane Williams.

Over one hundred faculty members kept Idamptox going through the year. Administration, teachers, and special services led us successfully.

Mr. Wilbert L. Lovett, our illustrious principal, dealt with the grievances of many with utmost patience. Mr. Harold O. Johns, one of our three assistant principals, dealt with athletics and the upkeep of the building and grounds. Mr. Joseph L. Price had charge of student affairs, including fees and clubs. Mr. Edward Duckworth worked with the curriculum, teachers, and substitutes.

The efficient guidance department at Hampton was responsible for things such as PSATs and college boards; college transcripts, financial aid, class rankings, and schedule arranging. Unfortunately one of our counselors, Mrs. Linda Westphal, was not able to work the entire year due to a prolonged illness. She was sincerely missed by the entire department.

The teachers in the English Department will long remember the 1973-1974 school session. In this year the "new" English system was finally initiated. After the first few weeks the shine of the new system grew dim and most would have gladly reverted back to the old system. Many IBM mistakes added to the dilemma, while the expected human follies also occurred.

Under the expert direction of Mr. Bert Carr, the English Department weathered a trying year. The English teachers, strenghtened by the trials and tribulations of this year, are better prepared for carrying out the new system next year to a greater success.

The Social Studies department under Chairperson, Mrs. Livingston, led an eventful year.

Watergate and the Equal Rights Amendment led to heated discussions in several classes, leading one to believe that the student body is finally rising out of the ever-constant apathy. The election of Virginia's new governor enabled students to campaign for the man of their choice, and was especially enlightening to the senior Government classes.

This year in retrospect may seem to have been calm and easy going — next year the Social Studies Department may meet the same fate as the English Department, the nine-weeks program.

Hampton High's Business Department kept busy this year by sponsoring Open-house for employers, Jr. High students, the Guidance Department and Faculty. Coffee, cocoa and doughnuts were served.

They also sponsored Vocational Education Week in which they posted a bulletin board in the Main lobby.

Headed by Miss Ethlyn West, the Department had visitation by first year typing classes to determine whether they were interested in the Block Program. All applicants were screened.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Teachers, administrators, and custodians are not all the staff members of Hampton High School. The school could not be run without the aid of those who offer "special services."

The office secretaries and the deans of boys and girls are an integral part of the Hampton "family." The library staff never goes unnoticed by the patrons of the library. Then there is the school nurse. Day in and day out many students find their way to the clinic and her care.

Cafeteria Staff: Donna McRae, Ethel Brittingham, Lee Mister, Betty White, Rachael Parrish, Ruth Frances, Inell Boone, Madelin Gillus, Lorraine

Riley, Lucille Lucido, Margy Steel, Della Collier, Arvis Phelps, Rose Hill, Lorenzo MacNeil.

Custodial Staff: James Gray, Bun East, John Ashe, Rachel Dixon, William Hubbard.

Aside from the repairs for evaluation and being paged to the "Main Office," the custodial staff had a routinely difficult year. The custodial staff, headed by Mr. James Gray, performed nearly every chore from rescuing textbooks from jammed lockers to battling the rain water that came in through the roof.

The cafeteria staff, too, had its hands full. When there were no trays left on the tables there always was the next days menu to plan.

All things aside both staffs proved once again that they are essential to HHS.

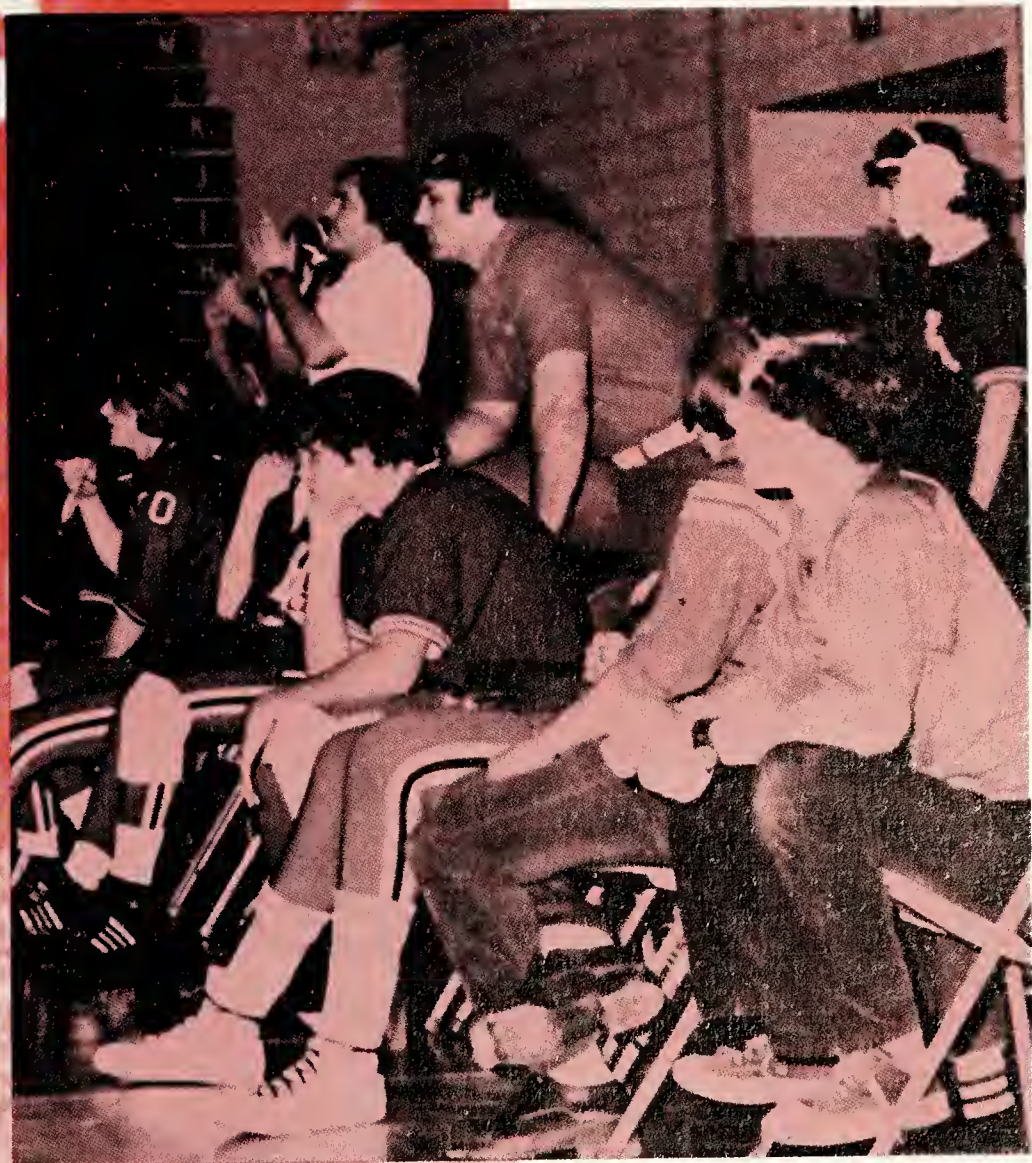

CAFETERIA AND CUSTODIAL STAFFS

SPORTS

The Sports Program suffered this year with the change to a city wide funding system. Much student support was lacking also.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Running Cross Country requires time, patience, and devotion. Not only does it require courage to defeat an opponent on a two and one half mile course, but the climate, ranging from 90 degrees in August to 40 degrees in October, takes its toll on runners. The cold weather brought complaints, colds, and strained muscles; the hot weather brought with the summer heat, and water drinking tournaments.

The Cross Country team received valuable help from David Colonna, Dale Smith, Wallace (Al Green) Payne, Tommy (the snake) Hogg, and Michael Rogers. Every Tuesday for seven weeks, dual meets were held against opposing schools. These meets were actually training meets for the regional Cross Country meet at Newport News Park, which decides the standing of the individual teams. Hampton placed seventh overall.

Besides the regularly scheduled meets, the Hampton team went to the William and Mary Invitational meet where over 450 runners competed. The event provided good training as well as enjoyment for the Hampton runners.

CROSS COUNTRY: Clayton Smith, Tommy Hogge, Jamie Whitham, David Colonna. All team members are not shown.

This year, Hampton's Varsity placed fourth in District, after a hard battle with Bethel for second. As usual practice began on the 10th of August. With temperatures in the 80's and 90's, a team composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, began to encounter a learning experience second to none. There were times when quitting appeared to be the only way out. Yet, with doses of salt tablets and cries for the water bucket, the team went on to the inevitable, six wins and only three losses and one tie. Although the team was expected to finish last, through good coaching by Mike Smith, Frank Johnson, and Bob Tyson, the team managed to finish fourth. After losing its first two games of the 1973 Junior Varsity season, many questions were asked by Crabber football fans. What would the season bring? Would the team fall apart or fight back? Would the Junior Varsity carry on the winning tradition of Hampton High.

The questions were answered. The baby Crabber's fought back running off four consecutive victories in a row. The team operated as a complete unit. Both the explosive offense and devastating defense were alternating deciding factors in crucial games throughout the season. The players will, definitely, be a great addition to the varsity and will carry on the winning tradition of Hampton High School.

Bobby Atkinson breaks for six points.

To the surprise of almost everyone, the Crabbers opened up the 1973-74 season with a fast break attack. The first half of the season provided exciting basketball, but the record stood at 4-6. During this period the players were adjusting to their new offensive style of play and improving their defensive skills. The second half of the season started with a bang when Hampton defeated Warwick in a 50-49 thriller. After that they rolled on to five more impressive victories.

Oliver Courtney was probably the most improved player on the squad. By the end of the season he was virtually unstoppable from his low post position. Sharp shooting Walter Jones always provided the outside shooting threat. Steve Hines and Lawrence Tucker shared the point position throughout the season, and both did a commendable job. John Ireland, an excellent defensive player, helped pull the team through many tough spots.

Juniors Nathan Watts, Michael Atkinson, and Raymond Sims saw a lot of action, and all three of them started at different times during the season. Woodrow Wilson, the team's only sophomore, demonstrated quickness and a competitive spirit. Junior, Bobby Watkins, did not see much action, but his major contribution was made in practice where he made it tough on his teammates.

The 1973-74 Crabbers never failed to play it tough. Many of their wins can be attributed to the fact that they out thought and out hustled their opponents. During the season the Crabbers developed into smooth and poised unit. The final record of 10-11 is no indication of the kind of team the Crabbers were at the end of the 1973-74 basketball season.

CRABBERS FINISH ON TOP OF J.V. LEAGUE

Hampton's J.V. finished on top of the J.V. league with a 16-5 record. However Hampton was beaten for the Peninsula crown by Warwick 49-48.

Defense was the key to the basic crabber program, which was built around the concept of good fundamental defense.

The J.V.'s contributed their success primarily to hard work, good attitudes, and good basic ability.

WRESTLERS CLINCH 3rd IN DISTRICT

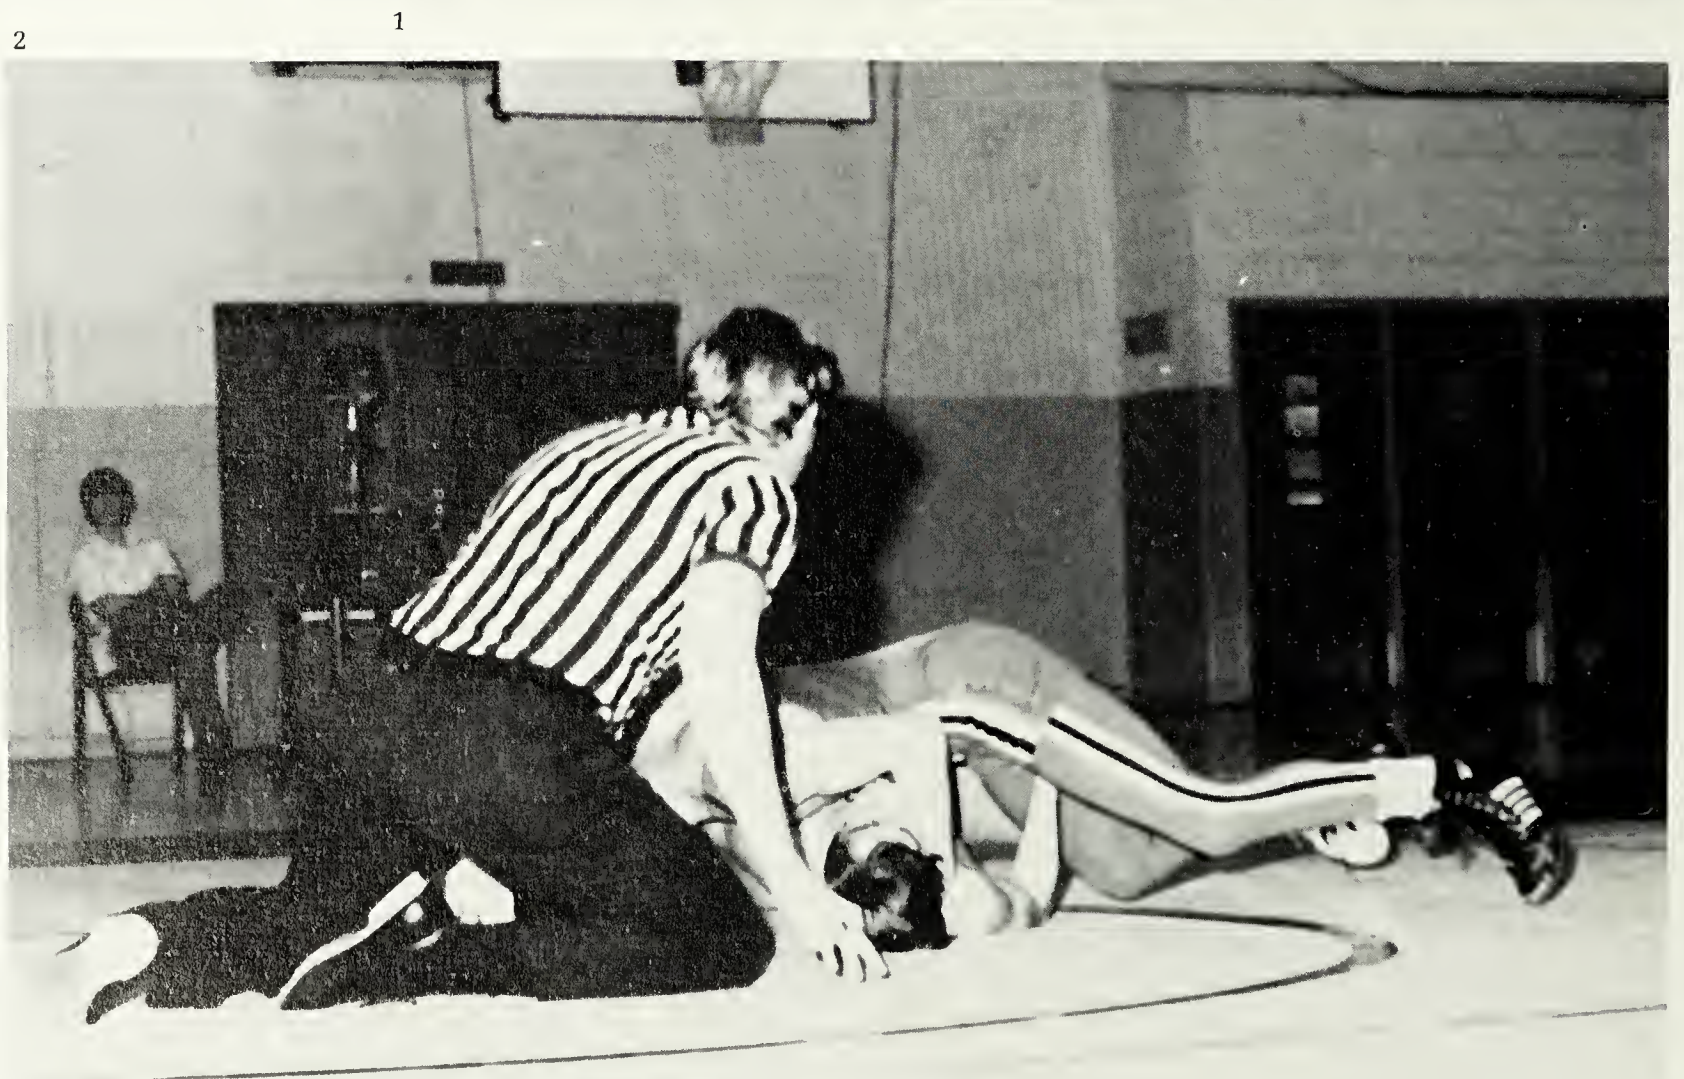

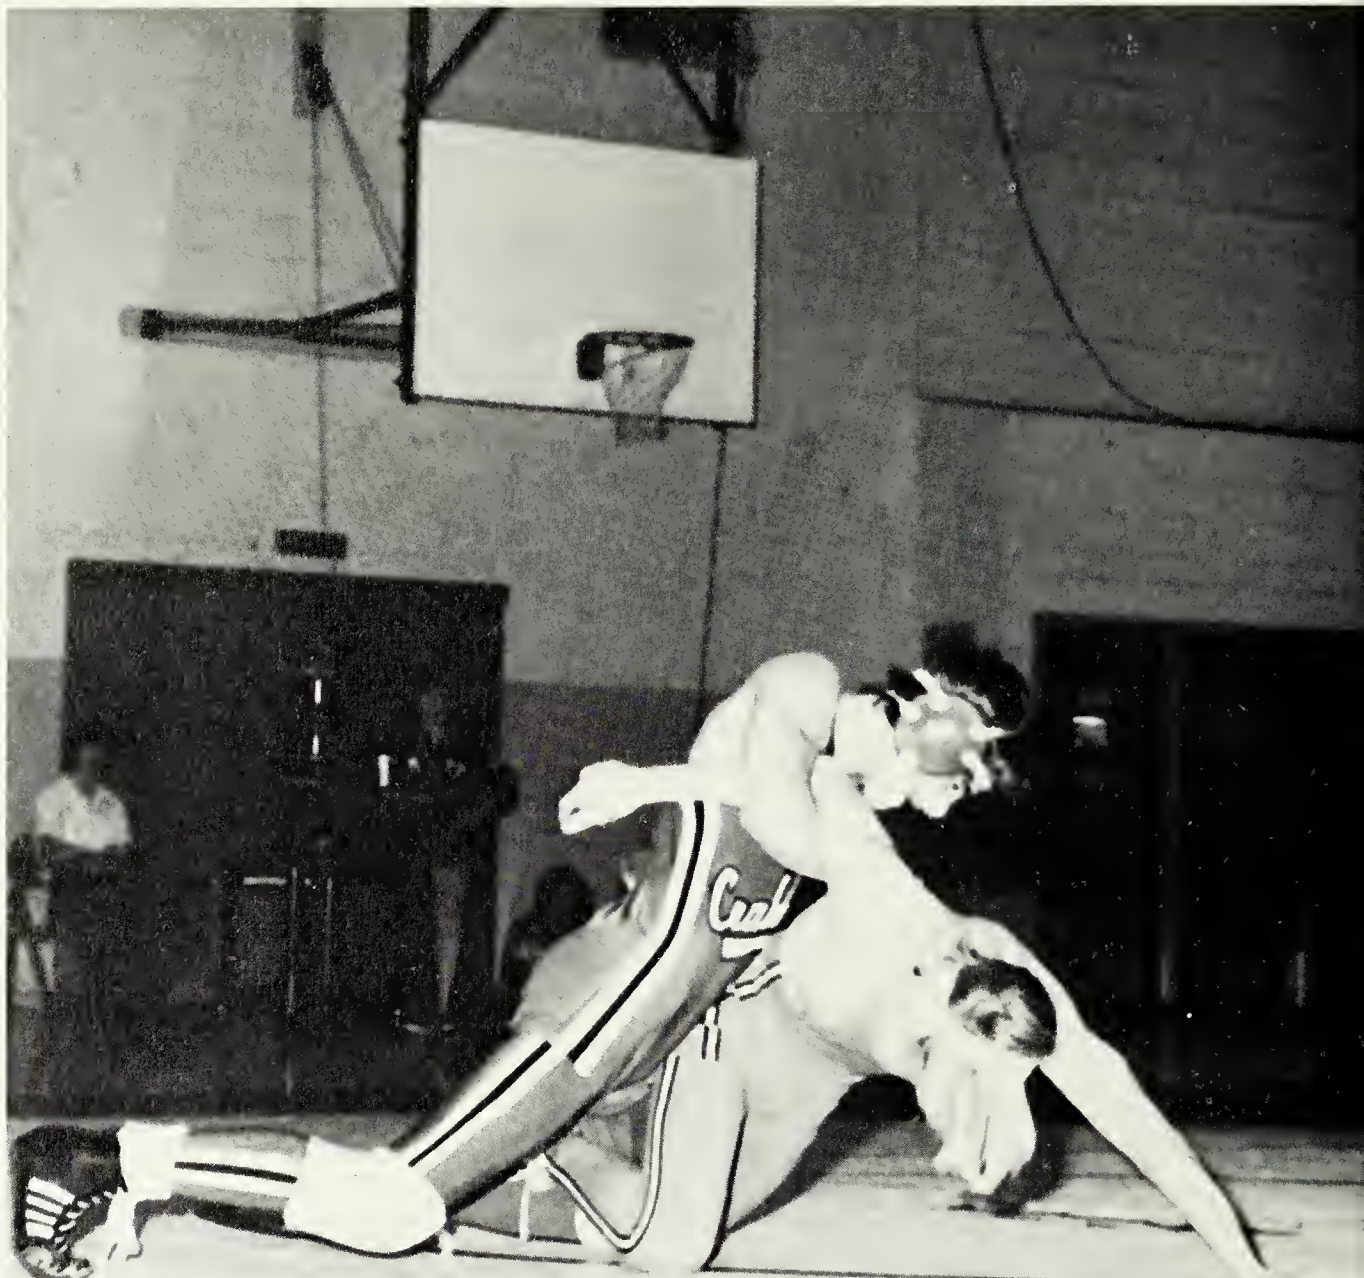

FIVE HAMPTON WRESTLERS

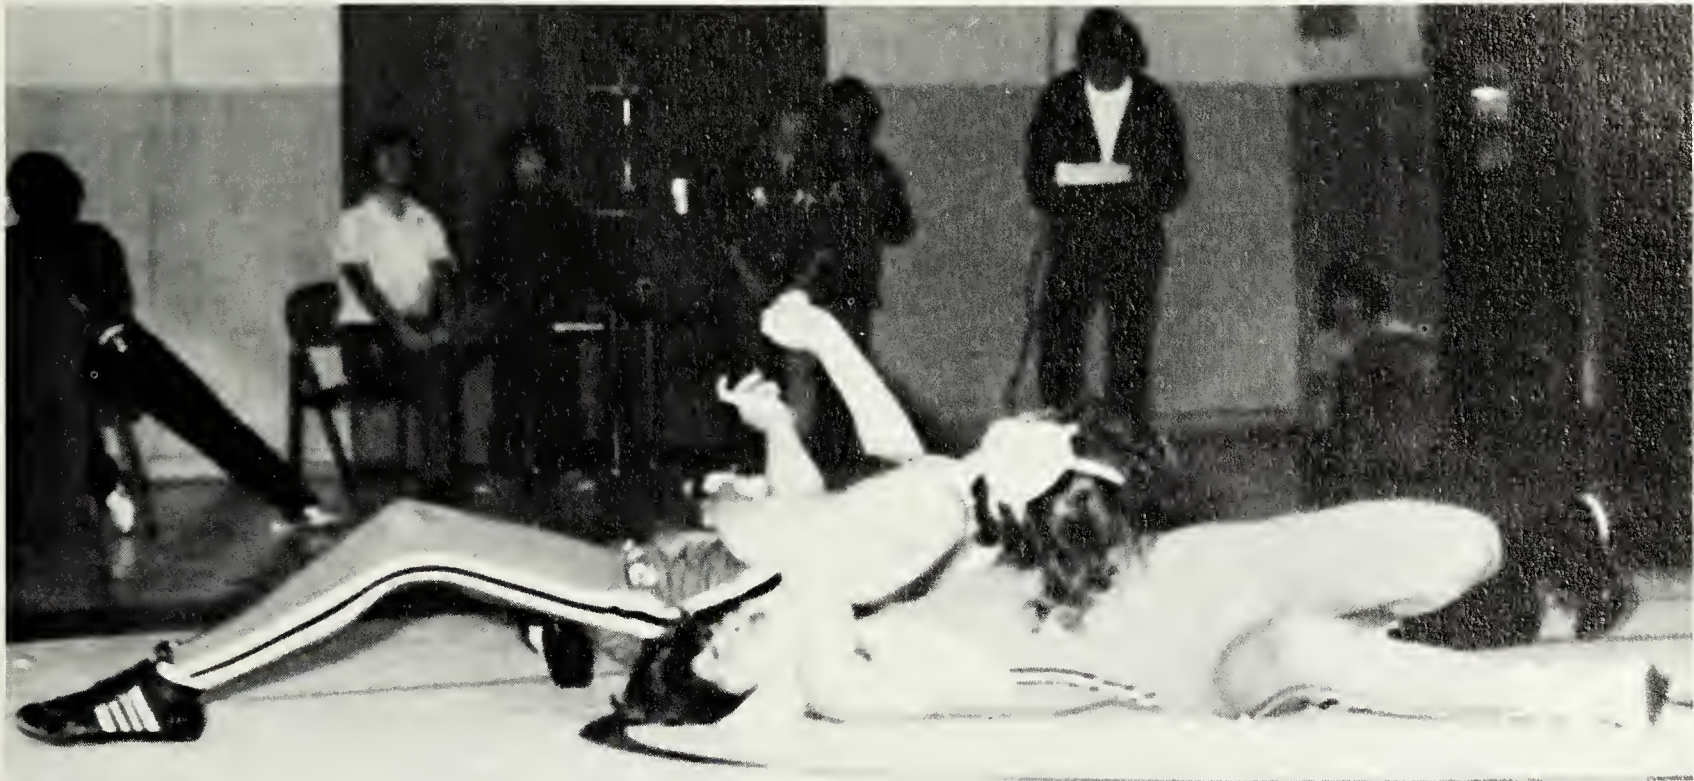

The Crabbers proved they were definite forces to be reckoned with in the Peninsula District Tournament. Senior Walter Parker secured third place, Junior Jimmy Crocker finished sixth, Junior Chris Herstrom placed fourth, Sophomore Steve Torrie finished third, and Sophomore Steve Nunn placed fifth. Senior Howard Spady was a strong contender for state competition but failed to weigh in for the District Tournament.

Coach Don Carden has 9 starters returning next year. With a strong base such as this, he feels that the '74-'75 Crabbers are a definite probability to annex the championship slot in Peninsula District Wrestling next year. Wrestlers of this caliber make losing seasons impossible.

1. Craig Wilson works for another pin. 2. Come on Ref! He's pinned! 3. Steve Nunn has his opponent lying low. 4. Tension builds on the Hampton bench as Herstrom, Coach Carden and Spady watch.

Most of the wrestlers on the Junior Varsity team attended Lindsay Junior High School. Kevin Frew, a junior at Hampton was an exception.

On March 4, 1974, a banquet was given to both the Varsity and Junior Varsity Wrestling teams. At this banquet, presented by the Parent's Booster club, each member of the J.V. team received a certificate and numerals. Food was served and each member ate to his heart's content — something every wrestler would like to do during the regular season.

Coach Barry Brown was very proud of his Junior Varsity team. They were a fine contribution to the spirit of Hampton High School and an inspiration to everyone.

INDOOR TRACK TEAM TAKES FOURTH PLACE IN DISTRICT

Superlatives are the only words suitable to describe this year's indoor track team. The mile relay team, composed of Wallace "Lee Evans" Payne, Virgil "Lizard" Newkirk, Rex "Dog" Perry, and Larry "Secretariat" Newby, ran the fourth fastest time in the United States with a 3:23.6 record. The mile relay team also placed third in state competition. The 880 relay team, consisting of Ron Johnson, Rex Perry, Kevin Marrow, and Wallace Payne, placed second in the state.

Hampton's efforts were bolstered for the mile and two mile events by David Colonna (who also ran the 880), Eddie Thompson, and Reginald Knight (though injured much of the season, gave Hampton a big boost).

Overall, Hampton had a fun year placing fourth in the district and seventh in the state.

HERE ARE THE DISTRICT GYMNASTIC CHAMPIONS

Gymnastics suddenly became a popular sport and for the first time the Peninsula District had a true gymnastics season and championship.

The Hampton High gymnasts in their new leotards and warmups, under the supervision of Coach Susan Nelson proceeded to win District by a landslide victory. The team also placed second in the region.

With the exception of two seniors, Laura Stein and Pat Williams, the team was solely underclassmen. The major stars, Beth Enderson and Karen Frew, were both freshmen. Outlook, therefore, is good for many future District Championships being won by the Hampton Gymnastics team.

Hampton High's varsity baseball squad enjoyed its most productive season in five years. Led by Mickey Hilling's record breaking pitching and Steve Henderson's .370 batting average, Coach Bob Tyson's team chalked-up an 8-12 record. Hampton's team provided exciting action for its sparse but enthusiastic crowd. The season's climax came with a 7-3 win over Lafayette.

HILLING AND HENDERSON PACE CRABBERS

First baseman Steve Henderson and pitcher Mickey Hilling paced the varsity baseball team in the '74 campaign. Henderson provided the "good glove" on first base where he's played in the starting spot for the past two years. He also provided Hampton with the "big bat" as he finished the season with a .370 batting average.

Mickey Hilling, on the rare occasions when he wasn't pitching, doubled as catcher in order to lend his bat to the team. Hilling broke the district record for innings pitched. The previous record had been 90; Hilling pitched 97½ innings.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS STRIVE FOR STUDENT SPIRIT

Headed by Connie Farris and co-head Betsy Burford, the Varsity Cheerleaders had a fun-filled year of cheering. During summer practices, the girls added new mounts and stunts which greatly improved the appearance of their cheers. Their game signs included pictures to gain the attention of students and encourage them to come out to support the teams. The cheerleaders also supported other sports other than football and basketball, which resulted in more well rounded school spirit.

The season included cheering at football and basketball games, riding in the football parade, cheering at the bonfire, supporting various other sports, practices, making shakers, having bake sales to earn money for new uniforms, selling poster boards, and sponsoring a clinic in April for '74-'75 cheerleaders. The year was very busy, but also fulfilling. The friendships gained and the appreciation the girls received from the team players made the year most worthwhile.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad was headed by Carol Councill and co-head Sandy Williams. A novelty of this year's squad was that it consisted entirely of sophomores so everyone had to start from scratch, making it a year of hard work, but a lot of fun. The season started off with summer practices twice a week and selling doughnuts to buy new uniforms. During football season, besides cheering at Saturday morning games, decorating the goal posts and cheering in the stands at the varsity games highlighted their activities. The cheerleaders followed the basketball team all the way to Districts, where the team was defeated to their disappointment. Nevertheless, it was definitely a year that will not be forgotten.

TREASURY IN GOOD SHAPE FOR ONCE

Memories of pep rallies, dances, and special events will always remain long after this year's SCA is gone from our hallowed halls. Sophomore Orientation (Executive Board members seemed to have more fun doing skits than the sophomores did watching them) . . . Cowboy Day . . . the return of the school parade . . . intramural sports (and sore muscles) . . . the Mock Election . . . The Christmas Assembly (best one yet) . . . SCA Council meetings (grab the Excedrin) . . . Homecoming . . . busted pepsi machines . . . and, oh yes!, good old May Day. Then, too, there was the new constitution (which nobody read anyway) and . . . by the way how did all those crabs end up at all those other high schools.

SCHOLARS MAINTAIN EXCELLENCE

National Honor Society recognizes students who are outstanding scholastically and who possess qualities of leadership, character, and service. In October the National Honor Society inducted twenty-five new members—seventeen juniors and eight seniors. During the school year Honor Society members attended the District Convention at William and Mary, participated in intramural sports, and sold popsicles on May Day. The annual picnic was held in June at Mrs. S. Livingston's home in Yorktown.

QUILL AND SCROLL HONORS LITERARY STUDENTS

Outstanding students from the Krabba yearbook staff, Krabba Highlight staff, and Seafarer staff are among the members of the Quill and Scroll literary club. This organization furthers interest in journalism, in addition to honoring students who have contributed to Hampton's literary publications.

SCIENCE-DEFINITELY NOT FOR BIRDS

Science Honor Society: (Back) Gary McGowan, Doug Broad, Billy Van Buren, Bob Wilson, Donna Lewis, (Front)

Stephen DeBrew, Cathy Womack, Nancy Van Vaulkenburg, Laura Stein, Norma Roberts.

Science Honor Society

The Science Honor Society is composed of students, who have for two or more years, maintained a B+ average or better. This year's Science Honor Society has been relatively inactive. The Honor Society is strictly for honoring the students who have shown excellence in the science courses at Hampton High.

Math Honor Society

Reorganized for the first time since 1970, the Math Honor Society experienced a successful year under the guidance of Mrs. Weeks and Miss Sheehan. Trips included a visit to William and Mary's Computer center and a bike hike.

Talks were given by William and Mary's Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Dr. R.H. Prosl and Christopher Newport's W. Collins.

LATINAEST PULCHRA

Latin Honor Society: Nancy Van Vaulkenburg, Cheryl Figuerido, Virginia Clark, Belinda Hill, Brian Witherspoon, Matt Horne, Stephen DeBrew, Mrs. Taylor.

Latin Honor Society

Latin Honor Society's scholars continued, under new sponsorship, to keep Latin alive. The new Sponsorship was provided by Mrs. Mary Taylor, the "new" Latin teacher.

The Latin Honor Society Banquet was not held this year, but the Latin departments of Hampton's four high schools held a combined banquet in early April at Jefferson Davis Junior High School.

Spanish Honor Society

Spanish Honor Society is composed of students who have taken at least 3 years of Spanish and maintained a B average in the language and an overall C average. All meetings are conducted in Spanish, and there are two meetings per semester.

The programs have been very enjoyable and informative. Among these have been talks on Cuba by a student's grandmother and aunt, and a talk on Argentina by Senor LaCabe.

The final semester brought the inductions of the new members and the election of officers for the coming year.

ON SCHEDULE? IMPOSSIBLE!

The tri-editors bravely led the talented KRABBA Staff through another grueling year of layouts and deadlines. The Junior members of the staff, Bunny Willis, Denise Dunn, and Rookie Howell were utterly confounded by the untiring activities of the experienced members, Patty Murray, Eleanor Patrick, Paige Speight, and Laura Stein. Jeanette Hudson, Elizabeth Moran, and Kay Wiatt, the seniors, were confounded but concealed it better. Staff membership was not static, with many floating copywriters, photographers, and miscellaneous helpers.

The first half of the year was spent making policy decisions on the general layout of the book and its theme. The staff sold the advertisements before beginning the actual book.

With the start of the second semester the staff really got down to business. Cries were heard for pictures, copy and time. The paper shortage was severely felt and the pencils had a way of disappearing. Eventually feuds over the cropper and who could use that headline were resolved and the yearbook was once again published.

KRABBA HIGHLIGHT

Shouting "Freedom of the press!" as they went, the '74 Krabba Highlight staff faced censorship, bankruptcy, interior decorating and smuggling of food into the mouse-infested backroom ("What's this banana doing in my file cabinet?") . . .

"Big Mick" Hilling assigns a 20-inch story to "Inch worm" Morris . . . she writes 50, and Mike "The Butcher" DiPersio cuts it to 5 . . . Oh well, that makes less work for typist Lela Lineberger . . .

"Today is deadline day . . . I'll have my story in tomorrow."

"OK, but have it typed," states Mrs. Joan "J.C." Corzatt.

There's no news around this " . . . " school. Cathy "Homemaker" Womack wins newsworthy award . . . make a banner out of it!

Amy "Big Bird" Kaiser puts Alexander Solzhenitsyn up in the newly-labeled morgue . . . Nancy "Doctor" Van Valkenburg takes a year off of Micheal "Junior" Brown's age with one swipe of the pen.

Cindy 'Cub-reporter' Howell is elected best (and only) sophomore on the full-year staff.

Rose Bendig dropped in for nine weeks and deserted the "sinking ship"

Pat "The Pen" Dobbins' artistic ability exceeded all expectations . . .

Toni "Hey Man" Meranda wore a dress and shocked the staff and Larry Nelson quietly wrote venomous editorials.

The galleys are in . . . layout time! What? . . . Will Roberts hasn't developed his pictures.

KRABBA KARAVAN TAPES SHOWS

1. Mike Bullion goes over script for taping. 2. Bunny Willis and Janet Riddick fill-in corrections.

With moans and groans Krabba Karavan received word from WVEX that broadcast time for 1973-1974 would be 10:15 p.m. each Wednesday. The other shocking news was that programs had to be taped. Prior to this year Krabba Karavan was aired live each Saturday. Like Professional broadcasting the members adapted and continued the tradition of searching for interesting topics and outstanding people to interview. The students explored varying subjects like the following; problems migrant workers' children face, reform schools, nursing homes, and strange happenings in the U.S. Students also interviewed knowledgeable student and adult personalities.

Speaking; Teresa Durette in Girl's Original Oration, in which she won third at District. Jeanne Elmore competed in spelling; Allen Hull, Boy's Poetry; Dennis Long won first in Boy's Prose Reading; John McFall, Boy's Original Oration; Laura Stein won third in Girl's Extemporaneous Speaking.

WELFARE AND WELFARE REFORM TOPIC FOR 73-74 SEASON

Debating is designed to encourage interest in contemporary international and national affairs, research, and problems in logic. The topic for 1973-74 lay in the area of welfare and welfare reform. The Hampton Debate Teams entered invitational tournaments at Madison College, Great Bridge, Kecoughtan, Norview, University of Richmond, and the District Competition. The teams achieved a 3-1 record during the season. Matt Horne, the only senior completed three years of debate competition by representing Hampton High School in the District finals. The other members are sophomores and juniors and will return to represent Hampton next season.

Efficient student assistants were an indispensable part of Hampton's staff. They worked in the Dean's offices, the Main office, clinic, principal's office, guidance office, bookstore, and library.

Sometimes the hardworking members felt that the world was composed solely of books that were overdue, delivery of library notices, checking of shelves for correct book placement, sorting, filing and cries for Certs and Life Savers. Running errands and answering the phone was always a welcome break.

The administration felt that they were a very big help to all; and that they could not have done their work without the aid of the student assistants.

BUSY IS THE KEY-WORD OF KEYETTES

Giving service and having fun kept the Keyettes involved this year. Keyettes honored the athletic staff of Hampton High with a Coaches' Day, the cafeteria and custodial staff with an appreciation day, and all new teachers with a token of welcome. The traditional Teacher Appreciation Week was appropriately recognized. The girls filled Halloween pumpkins with candy for children at the Virginia State School for the Blind and Deaf, and Christmas stockings for Eastern State Hospital patients; they held a Valentine party for the children at Hampton General Hospital. The Keyettes joined the Key Club for a fall picnic and for Christmas caroling at Mary Immaculate Hospital. The year concluded with the revealing of "secret pals" which instilled a special feeling of closeness among new-found friends. The Hampton High Keyettes also had the distinction of having three of its members nominated by District Keyettes for International Keyettes offices.

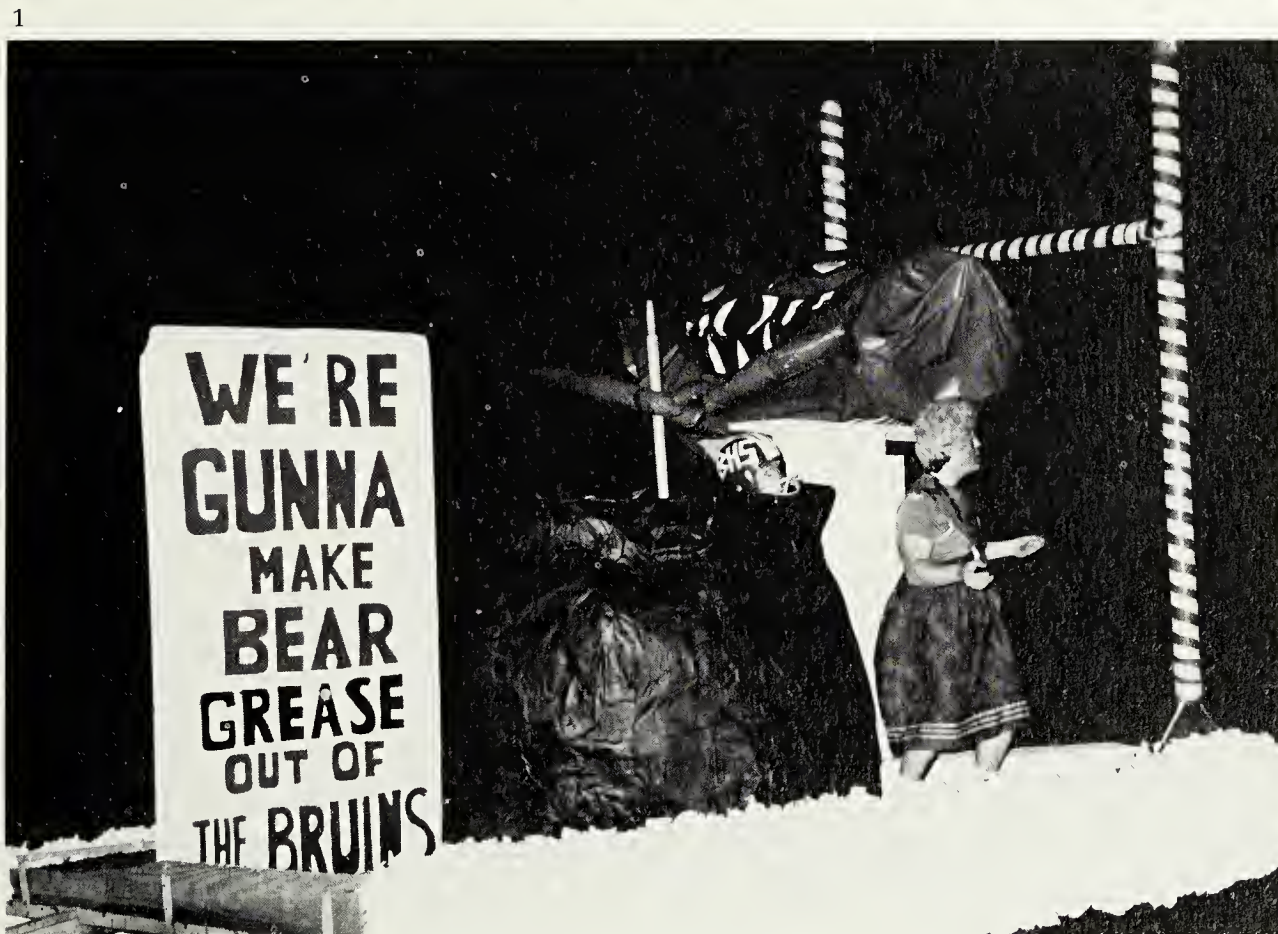

Keyettes will not stop seeing green until long after St. Patrick's Day.

KEY CLUB WINS BEST FLOAT AWARD

Although service is the principle goal of the Key Club, members have had their share of fun as well. Weekend basketball and football, and parties with the Keyettes shared a big part of the club's yearly activities.

Under the leadership of Thad Konopnicki, the club began the year selling book covers and football programs and working the crab on the roof of Thorpe. Key Clubbers also landscaped and painted the crab in front of the school, held several school clean-up campaigns, cleaned school trophies, and sponsored an "Ugliest Teacher Contest."

Community projects included collecting for the Heart Fund and Muscular Dystrophy and helping Kiwansi in their booths at Langley Kids Day and Hampton Fair Day.

Major projects for the year included "Career Night", construction of a scoreboard for the baseball team, and the publication of the Krabba Directory.

1. John McFall portrays Miss BHS on Key Club float. 2. Orville, the dog, works side by side with Key Clubbers to clean up HHS.

Y-TEENS, a branch of the Y.W.C.A., were actively involved in sponsoring activities in the community. A Halloween party was given at the 'Y' for the children in the area. A party was also given for the senior Citizens. A Karate demonstration was one of the highlights at a pajama party given for the Y-Teens. As their fundraising project the TEENS sold peanutbutter, mint, and butter cookies.

(front) Kay Allen, Jeanne Lindley, Fay Allen, Linda Taylor.

Future Teachers of America

FTA members were very active this school year. They visited two elementary schools and observed their classes in session. They also visited a state college. FTA had success with both candy and donut sales. The club also participated in the intramural sport of volleyball.

Future Homemakers of America

The FHA was kept very busy all year. At a glance, their schedule alone would exhaust its reader. Each month brought the posting of a bulletin board and various projects.

Some of the varied projects which they undertook were; Collecting food for the needy, making ties for fathers, producing a fashion show, and participating in the Muscular Dystrophy Fund Raising Campaign. This has been just a brief look at the FHA's many activities. Truly they have added much to the betterment of Hampton High and the community.

Le Cercle Francais: (back) Cindy Steinke, Phillip Noisin, Billy Van Buren, Rick Felker, David Henry, Kay Hunnicut, (front) Leslie

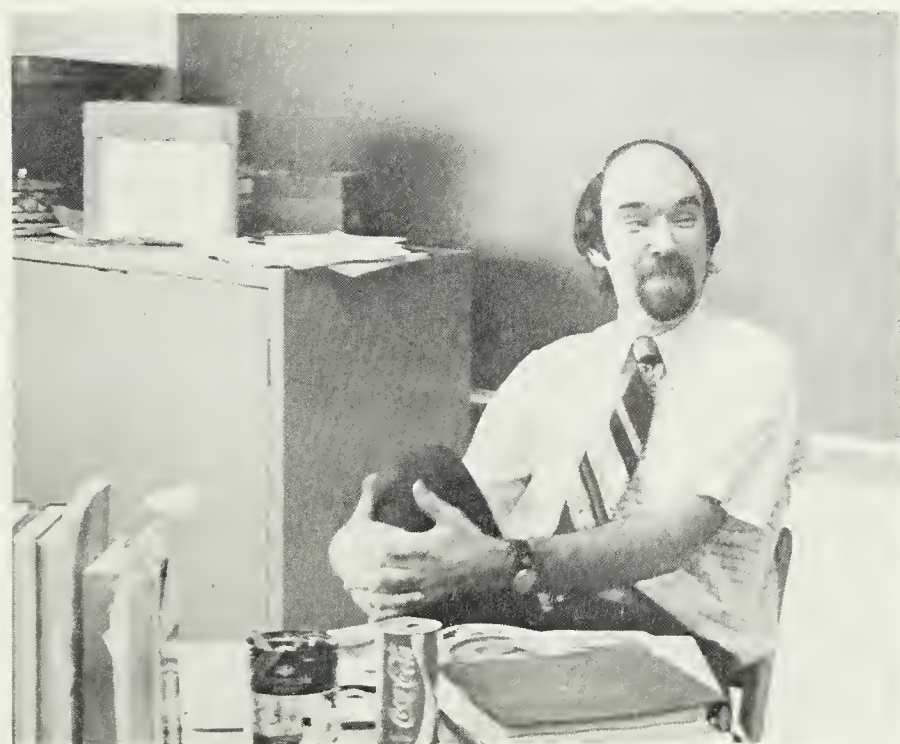

Davis, Cathy Womack, Karen Ali, Beth Tannen, Debra Mero, Lisa McMillan.

Le Cercle Francais did many interesting things this school year. The first program involved the members in role playing. In November a guest speaker talked about the French elections. Later during the year, a slide presentation on France and Switzerland was made to the club by Mrs. Jeanne Veith.

During the spring vacation, French club members and other interested students traveled to Quebec City visiting the Parliament Buildings, touring the City, Laval University, Montmorency Falls, La Citadelle, and crossing the St. Lawrence River on a Ferry. One evening was spent with the French-Canadian folk group "Les Fantaisistes."

The club finished the spring with an annual bike ride.

GERMAN CLUB VISITS WASHINGTON D.C.

Starting off the year, the German Club took a bike hike to Newport News. Throughout the year they went to Washington, D.C. and visited Embassy Austrian and the Old Europe Restaurant. Christmas they caroled at the Veterans Administration.

The Spanish Club participated in the parade with a walkin' float.

Spanish Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. S. McCracken, led an exciting year.

Educational films were enjoyable as well as being an excellent learning device. But all was not academic. The club members carried a pinata in the football parade which added to the Spanish Club's enthusiasm for the language and for Spain's culture.

In the spring the club participated in the intramural sports league and sold delicious pies to raise money for the club.

The main event for the History Club was the trip to New York along with the German Club. The members spent three days touring the city and attending plays and other events.

The main money making project was the selling of popcorn for several days after school.

Some of the programs for the meetings were seeing slides of Europe that were taken by some of the members during the summer and films of the different periods in history.

One of the highlights for the Chem-Phy club was the field trip to the A.H. Robins Pharmaceutical Company in Richmond. The members saw a film and were given a two hour tour of the company. Another field trip was to the NASA Visitor Center at Langley Air Force Base where a tour was also taken.

A special meeting, which was open to the student body, featured an experienced glass blower. He showed the fundamentals of glass blowing and made various chemistry lab glassware.

A major project for the past years has been the construction of a hovercraft. This year much progress was made and the hovercraft was ready to be displayed in the HHS Parade. One of the main money making projects was the selling of various kinds of stationery.

INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL

For those men and women at Hampton High who are interested in Air Force Military Science, AFJROTC is offered. Through this program the Krabber cadets are given the opportunity to witness military discipline, to participate in the drill team or color guard and through class room instruction, to obtain basic knowledge in such areas as aero-space history, weather, flight, navigation, and aircrafts. Participating in school parades and Hampton Institute's ROTC Day gave the Cadets the experience needed to win first place in the Phoebus Day Parade. Yet ROTC is not all work. The ROTC Ball and the Annual Review and Awards Ceremony provide a relaxed atmosphere for the cadets to enjoy their achievements.

DRAMA CLUB SPONSORS DANCE

The Drama Club, made up of Garicks and Thespians, led an eventful year. The theatrical department presented three productions for the public's enjoyment and also produced a Christmas play which was presented to children of the Hampton School System.

This year the Thespians and Garicks became more united and operated as one working force. This helped the department to produce more and better plays, yet did not help to relieve the problem of attendance. Evidently apathy has continued to rise in the halls of HHS.

On May 10th, the Drama department sponsored a costume ball. This was the first year the dance has been held and it is hoped that the ball can become an annual affair.

1. John McFall and Bobby Otte engage in a heated argument while Mike Bullion and Gary Bodie remain calm. 2. Are Mike Bullion and Jon Wetmore really reading a book, or are they quickly reviewing their lines? 3. Sonja Smith exerts her feminine charm upon Gary Bodie. 4. John Mcfall and Mike Bullion try to restrain and irate Gary Bodie. 5. Drama personnel "ham it up."

The A'Capella choir, under the expert direction of Mr. Sidney Swiggett, presented two enjoyable choral concerts. The winter concert was canceled due to snow, but the Fall and Spring concerts were well received.

Selling drinks and candy at home basketball games helped A'Capella raise money for their much needed music. The choir participated in the intramural sports program, and contributed a float to the SCA sponsored Football Parade.

One event that will always be remembered by the members of A'Capella was singing with the Peninsula Symphony Orchestra at their 27th Anniversary. Thirty-three members of the choir participated in the Regional Chorus Concert, while Cliff Moore and Norma Roberts attended the 1974 All-State Chorus, held at Virginia Tech.

All members of the A'Capella Choir will always remember the great experience of being a member of the best high school choir in Hampton.

Led by Lisa McMillan and sponsor Shelvy Manning, the majorettes had a very busy year. Besides performing at football game half times and marching in parades, the majorettes also participated in the majorette squad competition in Springfield, Virginia. They placed first in state competition, third in open competition with other states, and fifth in costume competition. The majorettes also sponsored a twirling contest in March.

Majorettes: Lisa McMillan, Lori Isbell, Ginger Beck, Cheryl Cheatham, Charlene Boyd, Patty McWilliams.

Band, at ease, anticipates their next selection. 7. Marching band behind Hampton High. 8. Duane Melson, drum major, struts onto the field. 9. Members of Ft. Monroe Army Band hold a clinic for band members.

LEAD TO DISNEYWORLD

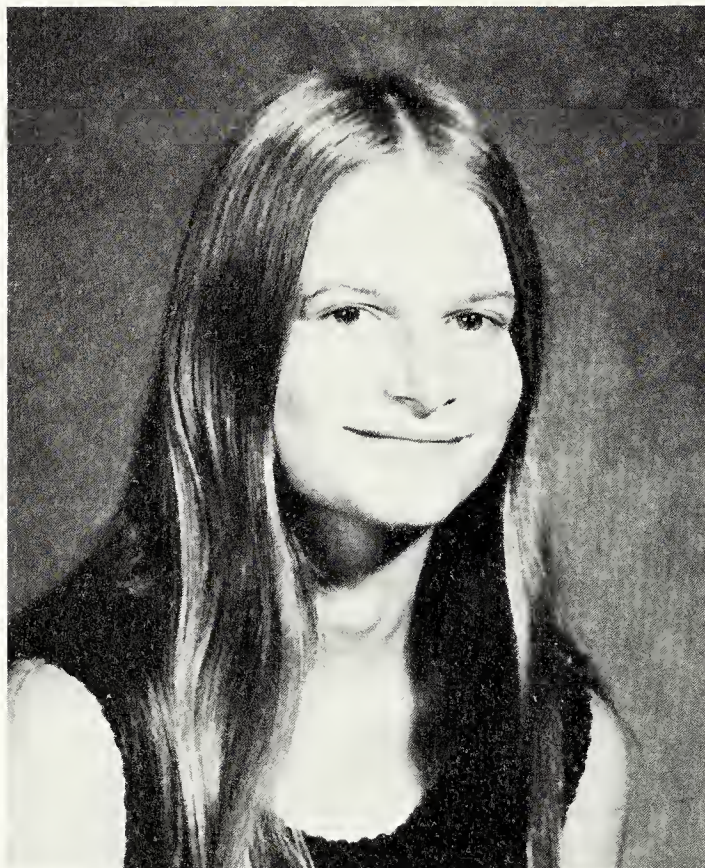

The Hampton High School Marching Band under the direction of Mr. David Anson, performed very well at many varied activities this year. The band placed second at the National Crab Derby in Chrisfield, Maryland and first at the Oyster Festival in Urbanna, Virginia. They also placed first in our own Hampton Christmas Parade.

The concert Band and Stage Band had a very successful year performing in two concerts and various district festivals. They also participated in a special program at Christmas in the Hampton Roads Coliseum.

Thanks to a very successful fund-raising drive, the band was able to take a trip to Walt Disney World in Florida. A receptive audience viewed the band in the Disney Street Parade and at a stand-up concert which the band gave.

The band ended its year with the annual spring concert.

GERMAN STUDENTS VISIT THE PENINSULA

Hampton High was privileged to have fourteen German students and a German teacher. Herr Wolfgang Rauch, visit us this year. They stayed for three weeks with host families of students who attend Hampton. Frau Stout started planning this exchange program over a year ago. The students came from Frankfurt and Bad Kreuznach in West Germany.

While in Hampton, they visited the Coliseum and the Coliseum Mall. They also planned trips to Williamsburg and Washington, D.C. A pot luck supper, a German club fuzball game, and a faculty reception were held in honor of the students. Fifteen students from our school, along with Mr. Tarketon and Frau Stout, will travel to Germany this summer.

1. American Government fascinates German students while they discuss current issues. 2. German students observe American school life.

Tomorrow is Here.

Here in Newport News.
Here in the hands of the people who work here. Because our people are building tomorrow with something that started a long time ago.

A legacy of expertise.
The teamwork, skills and engineering ability that have put together some of the world's most complex technical achievements.

Like the Navy's nuclear powered submarines, aircraft carriers and frigates. The world's most sophisticated commercial ships —liquefied natural gas carriers. And services and components for commercial nuclear power plants.

And when the call comes to go to work on other ideas for the future, we're ready. Because our people are ready. And always have been.
